HAZEL GREEN, KY.: WEDNESDAY, APRIL 29, 1885.

LOCAL NEWS.

Rev. J. T. Pieratt preached at Maple Grove last Saturday and Sunday. He reports large audiences and good behavior.

Parents of this town would do well to look to the language of their boys. The obscenity and profanity of some of them is shocking.

The stone for the foundation of the Presbyterian church at Jackson is being rapidly dressed, and the foundation will soon be in place.

Our birthday party didn't "pan out" worth a cent. Four or five small articles were donated, for which we are quite thankful to the donors.

Judge Robert Riddle closed court at Jackson last Wednesday. Judge Cooper having gone home the day previous, and he wore the crumple as he did erstwhile.

A train of the Kentucky and South Atlantic brought one hundred and seventy-five of the river hands from Mt. Sterling to Rothwell last Sunday morning.

Hon. C. R. Brooks, commonwealth's attorney, not being present, J. B. White, of Estill county, was appointed to fill the vacancy at the present term of our circuit court at Campton.

Our common school superintendent, Hon. Joseph M. Kash, on Wednesday, received the school money, $3,571, and will disburse it to the common school teachers this week at Campton.

Our Red River correspondent, under date of April 18th, furnishes the following: Born—To the wife of Allison Rose, on the 17th inst., a girl, weight 9 pounds. Died—On the 16th inst., infant child of Barbary Watkins; aged 6 months.

The attention of breeders is called to the advertisement of Grey Eagle, to be found on the fourth page of this paper. He is perhaps the finest animal in the mountains, and it will be to the interest of any man who loves fine stock to see his owner, Mr. R. M. Wilson.

James Bise, of Lacy creek, in this county, informs us that his wheat crop is looking as well as that of any average year. He says he has one field in wheat this year which was in wheat last year, and that the prospect now bids fair to make a better crop than that of last.

The stock sales at this place will be held on the Wednesday before the third Monday in each month, commencing with the 13th day of May. Day by day this enterprise seems to grow in favor with the stock men of this section, and there will doubtless be many buyers from below.

On Monday, April 13th, we will return to our old stand on Maysville street, the Phoenix Stables, where we will again be glad to see you. Our turnouts are first-class, and our stables will be in better shape than ever before. With thanks for past favors, we solicit your future patronage.
B. F. ROBINSON, Supt.

Mr. Adams, of the firm of Brinkley & Adams, Louisville, passed through our town last Friday. He is on his annual tour for their house, and has done an exceedingly good business considering the dull times. He reported good sales at West Liberty, and at this place sold a handsome bill of goods to J. T. & F. Day.

Floyd Day, of this place, experienced an impromptu baptism while going down the river with logs. He was trying to land the raft at Otter creek and threw the cable with which to tie up, when he lost his balance and went overboard. They say the atmosphere smelt of brimstone when he got out, and little Bible words escaped his lips.

Those who contemplate building should read the advertisement of F. Bush & Son, Lexington, Ky. This firm is one of the most substantial in the state, and furnish anything in their line at as reasonable figures as the same can be had elsewhere. Try them, if you need anything in their line, and you will find them to be just as we represent them—perfect gentlemen.

Marion Reeves, one of the best salesmen who ever stood behind a counter in Mt. Sterling, is now with Tom Rogers, the peoples' clothier at that place. We congratulate Mr. Rogers on his fortunate selection of such an affable and accommodating acquisition to his store, and predict that he will find his sales grow larger day by day. Marion is liked by all who know him. Our citizens should call upon him when they go to Mt. Sterling, and see how handsomely he will treat them, and how reasonable he will sell them anything in his line.

Personal Paragraphs.

County Judge G. B. Swango is attending court at Campton this week.

Dr. W. T. Wilson, of Jackson, was in town last Saturday.

Hon. W. B. Lykins, Esq., of Ezel, is at Campton this week.

Hon. W. O. Mize, of Hazel Green, is attending court this week.

J. Taylor Whaley took dinner at his aunt Emily's last Sunday.

W. H. Nickell, of Ezel, was in town Saturday and Sunday last.

W. W. McGuire, of West Liberty, is attending court at Campton this week.

Miss Roey E. Steele, of Campton, was visiting friends in Hazel Green on last Sunday.

Douglas Evans, of Campton, was visiting friends and relatives in our town last week.

Hon. J. W. Kendall, of West Liberty, passed through here Sunday, en route to Campton.

James Bise, Esq., of Lacy creek, was in town last Saturday and looked as natural as ever.

Taylor Johnson, of Ezel, was in Hazel Green on Monday last, en route to Campton circuit court.

A. M. Nickell, the enterprising merchant of Daysborough, called in our sanctum Monday.

Rev. Eugene P. Mickel is attending West Lexington Presbytery which met at Mt. Tabor, Clark county, yesterday.

Wray Beattie, special pension examiner, of Washington, D. C., has been in town for several days on official business.

Col. F. M. Long, of Grassy, was in town last Saturday. Come again, Dick, and be as good to us as you were the last time.

Big Bill Day, of Breathitt, passed through town last Thursday en route home. He sold his logs at Otter creek at a good price.

J. B. White, a prominent lawyer of Irvine, paid our town a visit on Sunday last. He had been attending Breathitt circuit court.

Walter C. Daniel, of the Maytown mill company, was in Hazel Green last week, a guest of the Pieratt house. He was en route home from Paintsville, whither he had been on business.

Judge Robert Riddle spent a few days in Hazel Green last week, the guest of J. Taylor Day; and left Sunday for Campton to attend circuit court at that place, which commenced on Monday last.

John C. M. Day, of Frozen, Breathitt county, passed through town on last Thursday, en route home from Otter creek where he sold his logs. He reports the trade in lumber good, and predicts better times in his section.

Among the visitors at Campton court this week we noticed Hon. W. H. Taulbee, of Grassy; John S. Mahan, of Breathitt; D. B. Redwine and Ed. C. Cardwell, Jackson; H. C. Lilly, J. B. White, Judge Fluty and Judge Robt. Riddell, Irvine; Dr. B. E. Talbert, Stanton.

Trade With Advertisers.

If you wish to buy or sell anything, call and see us before doing so. On the first count our advice will save you much, and on the second it will make you a great deal. Examine your home paper always if you wish to deal with any man away from home, and if you cannot find his business reflected in its columns, it will be safe for you to consult with the editor before buying. Do not hazard your money with any one who don't advertise.

THE HERALD, we wish it understood, is always on the lookout to protect its patrons from swindles of every character, and there is no way in which it can accomplish more than by warning its subscribers and friends against dealing with any house not advertised in its columns. An advertisement in this paper is always a guarantee that you will be treated right by the advertiser, because we invariably investigate as far as it lies in our power the standing of the party or parties advertising. Be careful, therefore, to deal only with HERALD advertisers. No matter what you want to buy, if it is not advertised in THE HERALD, let it alone until you consult with us. We will investigate for you without cost and then give you our advice. You cannot be too particular in this matter. A failure to do as we warn you, may cause you to lose many dollars.

The Hazel Green High School.

The high school at this place will close on Friday, May 22nd. Prof. Hayes has labored very hard and the effect of his labors are plainly to be seen. But while he has been busy, his accomplished wife has not been idle. She is training a class in elocution, and we can say that under her instruction they are advancing rapidly. She is also preparing the classes for an entertainment which will be given as follows:

The Hazel Green literary society will give an open entertainment on Thursday night, May 21st, followed by a temperance play by the young folks.

Commencement exercises on Friday night, May 22nd. "The Turn of the Tide," a drama of thirteen characters. A farce: "Thirty minutes for refreshments," eight characters.

There will be a public examination on Thursday and Friday, the 21st and 22nd, in which the pupils will contend for the medals, 10 in number.

On the night of the commencement the ladies will read and the gentlemen deliver orations for a gold medal.

We are unable, at present to give the order of the exercises in full, but feel assured that it will be the grandest affair ever witnessed in Hazel Green.

He Downed Him.

Miles Little, of Stillwater, and a son of Phil Little, Jr., who lives on Lacy creek in this county, was tried before Squire Lindon and a jury at the John Rose school house last Saturday, for assault upon Calvin Davis, and fined $25 and costs. The evidence developed the fact that on the 9th inst., the two were in company, Davis leading a mule hitched to a sled upon which he had some household goods, and that Little, who is a cripple, slipped up behind him and dealt him a blow with his crutch, knocking him senseless. Davis swore that they had had no unkind words, and that he supposed Little was his friend. Little pleaded not guilty upon the trial and claimed that he did not strike him. Maybe the mule kicked Davis, and he was so stunned that he did not know whether it was Little or lightning that struck him.

CORRESPONDENCE.

EASTERN KENTUCKY NEWS BY COUNTIES.

Reported by Special Correspondents from
All Points in the Mountains.

Wolfe County.

CAMPTON.

E. H. Osborn has opened up a stock of groceries, etc., in town.

The circuit clerk, W. F. Elkins, had everything in order for court.

Lady Brittain was tried, on the 20th inst., as an accomplice of her husband, Lord Brittain, and acquitted.

The inside work of the court-house is finished, and it is said to be the best and handsomest in this judicial district.

Circuit court began Monday morning with 156 commonwealth's cases, 65 equity causes, and 42 common law cases—the largest docket we have had for years. Nearly all the commonwealth processes are executed, thanks be to our efficient sheriff, G. T. Centers.

SPRADLING.

Miss Belle Tutt has returned home from Grant county.

Dr. J. H. Stamper paid this place a flying visit last week.

Mrs. Andy Ratliff is on the sick list, and has been for some time.

Farmers are very busy, in this neighborhood, preparing for the coming crop.

Mrs. Charlie Gausney, of Grant county, is visiting her father's family in this county.

Mr. Adams, of the firm of Brinkley & Adams, of Louisville, paid our place a visit last week.

Scaling saw logs seems to be all the go for the last few days, for which we are very thankful.

One of H. D. Spradling's tenant houses was burned last Thursday evening. The cause was accidental.

The Kentucky river boys seem to keep the road hot on the way home with their pockets full of ready cash.

J. W. Griffin's little son Joe, died last week after an illness of several days. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community.

We had a wedding in our midst last Thursday evening at the residence of the bride's father on the Big branch: W. T. Haulsey to Miss Angeline Taylor. Rev. Abraham Ingram officiating.

ALBION.

STILLWATER.

The farmers are very busy planting corn this week.

Born—To the wife of J. Miles Tester, a son, weighing six pounds.

W. J. Wallace has sold his farm to W. M. Combs, of Jackson for $800, cash.

A. T. Combs bought of John Chappell on last Monday, one saddle mare for $100 cash.

John M. Rose had a nice lot of cattle on the market at Mt. Sterling last week, and returned well-pleased with his sales.

Wm. Spencer and son passed through our vicinity, last Thursday, with thirty head of nice mountain cattle. He was driving them to his farm near Mt. Sterling.

In this section of the county farmers will not harvest as much wheat as was sown last fall, simply from the fact that we have passed through the hardest winter ever known in this climate.

We are proud of our native state, grand old Kentucky, and we love Hazel Green and the people we have lived among since our infancy; and we are proud that she has such a wide-awake newspaper as THE HERALD. LEATHER BREECES.

Menifee County.

FRENCHBURG.

Born—To the wife of S. V. Clark, a son, April 20th.

Mrs. Whitt and Mrs. Gill, daughters of T. T. Moore, are visiting relatives here.

Died—April 17, of consumption, Mrs. Dale, wife of H. P. Dale; April 16th, of pneumonia, G. D. Chambers, an old citizen of Montgomery county; April 17th, Wm. Carter, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of the state.

Small armies of river men have been passing through for several days past. They say more timber was floated on the rivers than ever known at one time before. About 4,000 logs were taken from Beaver creek alone, and it is only navigable about 12 miles from its mouth.

John D. Trimble, son of Mrs. Mary Trimble, near this place, committed suicide at Fort Scott, Kansas, April 16th, by taking morphine. Cause: hard drink and jealousy of a lewd woman with whom he had been associating. The usual result of strong drink and evil companions.

I think I can safely make the assertion that, in the land of Menifee county was divided into tracts of 10,000 acres, each tract would furnish a site for an iron furnace with ore and timber enough on the whole, and coal on two-thirds of them, to run them for an indefinite period. The ore and coal, in fact, would be inexhaustible. Since Prof. Crandall made his report, the coal and iron has been opened and developed to great advantage in many places.

Morgan County.

MAYTOWN.

Sheriff Dennis was in Wednesday. Allen Barker, of Caney, was in town last week.

Dr. B. F. Dixon, of this place, is visiting old friends in Johnson this week.

Leslie E. Swetnam, of West Liberty, is in town the guest of his brother-in-law, E. B. May.

Judge B. F. Day gave us a call last week on his return from Jackson circuit court. The judge is always a welcome guest at Maytown.

Rev. D. G. B. Demaree will hold Rev. Stamper's third quarterly meeting at this place May 2nd. The official members are expected to be present.

Parties expecting to attend the Sunday school convention to be held at this place, commencing April 30th, will please notify Rev. W. L. Stamper of the fact so that homes can be provided for all who may attend.

Married—On the 3rd inst., W. T. Halsey, of Menifee, and Miss Angeline Taylor, of Big branch, Wolfe county. Rev. Abraham Ingram officiating. The contracting parties stand high in society, and the best wishes of a host of friends go with them on life's journey.

Last Thursday, while J. H. McGuire was burning off his new ground preparatory to planting corn, the leaves took fire, and before the devouring flames could be stilled considerable damage had been done. E. B. May, Louis Powers and B. F. Sexton sustained heavy loss in the way of fencing.

Some enterprising man who would like a lucrative business would do well to open out a first class hotel at this place. Scarcely a day passes but what some one calls for accommodations. Private families are not always in shape to accommodate the traveling public. Maytown is situated on the regular thoroughfare that runs through the state, and there are no hotels closer on this road than Hazel Green and Frenchburg.

Farmers have gone to work in earnest in this neighborhood. Scarcity of provisions imparts a stimulus to the people that has set in motion all the farming utensils of the country, set the smith's hammer a going, the mechanic to driving his plane and pushing his saw. We guarantee that, if providence favors us with a good season next year, the farmers will have plenty and to spare. People will become careless and lazy if they had plenty all the time, so these hard times are lessons by which the hardy sons of toil may derive material benefit.

Quarterly Meeting on Stillwater.

There was quarterly meeting at Stillwater last Saturday and Sunday, Rev. D. G. B. Demaree, P. E., G. G. Ragan and Samuel Chandler officiating. Much interest is said to have been manifested in the meeting by a large and appreciative audience at each service, four of which were held, Saturday night, Sunday at 11 a. m. and 3 p. m. Our reporter, W. P. Lacy, says he never saw as much beauty congregated together since he first began to love, and he thinks some of the fair ones stole his heart, because where it used to be there is terribly aching void.

Young Men!—Read This.

The Voltaic Belt Company, of Marshall, Mich., offer to send their celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belt and other electric appliances on trial for thirty days to men (young or old) afflicted with nervous debility and all kindred troubles. Also for rheumatism, neuralgia, paralysis and many other diseases. Complete restoration to health and vigor guaranteed. No risk is incurred, as thirty days trial is allowed. Write then at once for illustrated pamphlet free.

Licking River Measurement.

Many dealers who take timber down the Licking are not aware of the fact that there is a great difference between "Licking river measurement," and the measurement recognized by law, and in force on the Kentucky river. The seller loses from 20 to 30 per cent. when he accepts the Licking river measurement, on a basis of so much per 100 feet, and for the benefit of those interested, we point to the fact that the legislature passed a law, during Senator Mize's term, making Doyle's the lawful measure for the Licking valley.

The Petit Jury.

For the petit jury of Wolfe circuit court, the following gentlemen were summoned: Peter Little, W. E. White, M. M. Shackelford, Granville Allen, James Napier, Harrison Little, J. Cabal, E. S. Congleton, Alex. P. Lacey, C. S. Samples, James W. Rose, G. W. Spencer, John Wireman, W. T. Tyler, Chas. Terrell, James Drake, J. P. Bush, Strong Spencer, Hiram Swango, Charles Byrd, J. T. Stamper, W. H. O'Hair, Alex. Osborn and Louis Brewer.

They All Did Well.

Many river-men from the upper Kentucky and the Licking rivers, have passed, and are now passing through our town on their return from market, where they took their logs on the recent tides. They report fair prices for their timber, ranging from 70 cents to $1.15, according to quality, per 100 feet for poplar and oak logs, cash. This industry brings a considerable influx of money into Eastern Kentucky.

Home-Like Hospitality.

The Asbury hotel was crowded to its utmost capacity on Monday last, and its accommodating management, headed by A. J. Asbury, captain, and 1st lieutenant, Mrs. A. J., closely applied themselves to the wants of every visitor. They thoroughly understand the fundamental principles of hotel success: "If you want to tickle the trade, tickle the stomach."

Gentlemen of the Grand Jury.

The following gentlemen compose the grand jury of Wolfe county: James A. Sword, foreman; Jeff Bush, Andrew Kash, W. P. Lacy, John D. Rose, sr., Samuel Haddix, Amos Williams, Geo. Hutton, Geo. Long, J. C. Spencer, David Spencer, Robt. Alexander, Wm. Holton, Jas. N. Rose and Wm. Childers.

Not Expected to Live.

Mr. A. H. Kash, whose serious illness was mentioned in our last issue, is still lingering in an extremely dangerous condition. The chances are against his recovery, but all that can be done for him is being done by three of our best physicians, Drs. J. K. Kash, F. M. Thomas and A. B. Nickell.

He'll Come in the Sweet Bye-and-Bye.

Elder L. H. Reynolds, of Bourbon county, who had expected to hold a protracted meeting here, about the 10th of May, has deferred the time on account of ill health, and if no providential hindrance will hold the meeting in June. Ample notice will be given of the date.

Something Rotten in Denmark.

Our Ezel subscribers complain that they do not get their papers until Saturday evening. THE HERALD is mailed regularly every Wednesday morning and should reach Ezel on Thursday at latest, and any further delay must be the fault of Uncle Sam's officials somewhere.

He Comes to Stay.

Green H. Strother, of Carter county, who spent last summer in our town, engaged in plastering, will return here tomorrow, and will finish some large contracts in his line, which will give him employment during the coming season.

A Good Landlady.

Mrs. Ella J. Lee is the best landlady in the community, and deserving of the people's patronage.
